

Bird Band

Pete, Bob, and Wally were TikTok sensations – African Gray parrots who had formed a blue grass band. Wally scratched at a washboard, Bob picked at the strings of a banjo, and Pete climbed up a parrot-sized ladder to reach a suspended violin, which he proceeded to pluck with his beak. Washboard Wally and Banjo Bob (as they were known) were cute, no doubt about it, but TikTok hearts were melted by the little ladder of Fiddle Pete.
